DETAILS:
The Insurance Industry Charitable Foundation invites participants to explore the impact of today’s most relevant diversity and inclusion topics through its Women in Insurance Regional Forums. Attendees will hear from highly acclaimed speakers who are leaders in a range of fields from business, academia, research and beyond, while enjoying outstanding networking opportunities, creative workshops and learning experiences. Through its regional divisions and conference series, IICF positions the insurance industry at the forefront of the national conversation around diversity, inclusion and leadership.

By offering a regional format, IICF provides access to industry insight and expertise throughout the U.S. as well as easier scheduling and reduced participation costs. Additionally, IICF hopes to support the growth of regional networks and encourage the participation of high-potential women early in their insurance careers. More than 4,000 insurance professionals have attended the IICF Women in Insurance Regional Forums and Global Conferences since 2013.
