IICF to Donate 14,000 Storybooks to Children in Underserved Communities in conjunction with 2018 Women in Insurance Regional Forums

IICF’s Early Literacy Initiative Reaches Children throughout the US and UK through Proceeds Raised by Women in Insurance Conference Series

A portion of proceeds from the IICF Women in Insurance Conference Series help to support the IICF Early Literacy Initiative, which aims to help provide young children the opportunity to learn, read and write - regardless of economic means. In conjunction with this year’s Women in Insurance Regional Forums, we are also announcing the donation of more than 14,000 copies of Book Buddies, our bilingual children’s storybook developed in partnership with Sesame Workshop and the latest free resource in our Every Day is a Reading and Writing Day program.

These books are being donated to our nonprofit partners focused on early childhood education and literacy, including Bernie’s Book Bank in Chicago and Jumpstart in Los Angeles and San Francisco, who will distribute to children in their local communities. In some cases this may be the very first book a child calls their own - and this is made possible through the generous support of the industry!

Through the IICF Early Literacy Initiative a total of 100,000 printed storybooks will be distributed for free to children in underserved communities in schools, libraries and children’s organizations across the United States and United Kingdom, and through IICF volunteer-organized literacy events.
